Invites you to participate in our Special Lecture Series

"Theoretical and Conceptual Aspects of Social Entrepreneurship"

By

Prof. (Dr.) B.Panda

Department of Sociology
North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong

Biswambhar Panda did his M.A., M. Phil. from University of Hyderabad. He obtained his Ph.D from Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Kanpur. He joined North-Eastern Hill University (NEHU) in 2002 as a lecturer in Sociology. He became Reader in 2009, Associate Professor in 2012 and Professor from 2015. His areas of research include Social Movement, Civil Society, Third Sector Organization and Sociology of Development.

Social entrepreneurship has emerged as one of the important areas of research. Social entrepreneurship can be perceived as philanthropic entrepreneurship as it gives emphasis to the creation of social values. It therefore, combines economic aspects as well as social issues with primary importance to well-being of the people. Various conceptual and theoretical issues relating to social entrepreneurship will be presented in this lecture. The characteristics of social entrepreneurship, significance of social entrepreneurship, importance of social capital for social entrepreneurship, etc. will be discussed in the course of this lecture.

DATE & TIME: 05th November 2018, 11:00A.M.
