A seminar on "Interactive Program Regarding the KAP Survey" was held on 10th June 2025 at 3:00 PM in the Conference Hall of Examination Section, Tripura University. It was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Tripura University. The main guest was Prof. Bidyut Chakraborty, former Vice-Chancellor of Visva-Bharati University. Dr. Biplab Debnath, convener and coordinator of the KAP survey. Faculties, staffs students and scholars from various departments of Tripura University attended the event.

Dr. Biplab Debnath explained how Tripura University took part in the KAP endline survey for the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. KAP stands for Knowledge, Attitude, and Practices. This survey was done after the elections to understand how people felt about voting and what they knew about the process. Students of the University visited different districts in Tripura and collected data. They asked people about their knowledge of elections, their attitude towards voting, how many voted, and why some did not vote.

During the session, Prof. Chakraborty answered questions from the students who took part in the survey. The final KAP survey report was handed over to him. The program ended with a vote of thanks by Prof. Shaon Ray Chaudhuri.
